

Spot a Pallas's cat:

Thick tail with black rings

Long fluffy coat

Black spots on forehead

Yellow eyes with round pupils

Two lines on each cheek

Report sightings: www.pallascats.org

PALLAS'S CAT

Otocolobus manul
POCKET GUIDE

© Vincent Munier

Are Pallas's cats living near you? Spot the signs...

Size:

Habitat:

Mountains and grasslands of Central Asia

Up to 5000 metres / 16,000 feet

Spot the signs of Pallas's cats:

Small paw prints
(no claw marks)

Rocky caves or empty burrows (used for shelter)

Piles of poo

Spot the signs of Pallas's cat prey:

Pikas are their main food source

They also eat small mammals and birds

Pallas' cats prey on marmots and even use their burrows for shelter